

List of LA Times Homelessness Series

Listed below are a series of 12 articles on homelessness that were published in the LA Times between January 28, 2018 and March 2, 2018:

- Series #1- L.A. homeless crisis grows despite political promises, many speeches and millions of dollars. How do we fix this?
- Series #2- L.A.'s homelessness surged 75% in six years. Here's why the crisis has been decades in the making.
- Series #3- Huge increase in arrest of homeless in L.A. - but mostly for minor offenses
- Series #4- A plan to house L.A.'s homeless residents could transform parking lots across the city
- Series #5- L.A. considers cutting through red tape to get homeless people housed faster
- Series #6- Los Angeles' homelessness crisis is a national disgrace
- Series #7- The homeless in L.A. are not who you think they are
- Series #8- Don't let NIMBYs – or weak-kneed politicians – stand in the way of homeless housing
- Series #9- Treating and housing the mentally ill is harder than jailing them. But it might actually work.
- Series #10- How can a place with 58,000 homeless people continue to function?
- Series #11- 'Castaways' in motor homes feel stranded on society's fringe
- Series #12- L.A. has a long history of failure on homelessness. It needs leaders who will take responsibility

Homelessness Resolutions

Listed below are the two resolutions to combat homelessness in the City and County of Los Angeles:

- Proposition HHH - City of Los Angeles – Approved November 8, 2016
- Measure H – County of Los Angeles – Approved March 7, 2017